ODESIA solidified its Partnership with Business Objects

MONTREAL, QUEBEC--(Marketwire - February 21st, 2008) - ODESIA Group Inc. ("ODESIA") (TSX VENTURE:ODS) announced the signing this week of a new partnership with software giant Business Objects, an SAP company, to become an Authorized Education Partner (AEP.) The partnership allows ODESIA to give onsite training to Business Objects clients throughout North America. AEPs are rigorously trained and supported by Business Objects, the world's leading provider of business performance optimization solutions.

"Having ODESIA join us as a member of our Authorized Education Partner program is great news," said Beth Christopher, North America Education Programs Manager at Business Objects, an SAP company. "We look forward to ODESIA delivering high quality training to our joint customers. The combination of our industry-leading solutions and ODESIA's business intelligence expertise creates a winning combination for our customers."

Denise Goncalves, VP Business Development for ODESIA, outlined some of the benefits for their clients. "As an Authorized Education Partner, we can leverage the marketing and sales reach of Business Objects' industry-leading products. More importantly, we can provide incremental value to our customers by offering a complete solution which includes delivering meaningful training and improving the overall satisfaction level of our customers."

About Business Objects

As an independent business unit within SAP, Business Objects transforms the way the world works by connecting people, information and businesses. Together with one of the industry's strongest and most diverse partner networks, the company delivers business performance optimization to customers worldwide across all major industries, including financial services, retail, consumer-packaged goods, healthcare and public sector. With open, heterogeneous applications in the areas of governance, risk and compliance; enterprise performance management; and business intelligence; and through global consulting and education services, Business Objects enables organizations of all sizes around the globe to close the loop between business strategy and execution.
