ODESIA strengthens its partnership with SAP by offering, this fall, public courses on SAP® BusinessObjects™ Solutions

Montreal (Quebec), August 20, 2009 - ODESIA Group Inc. ("Odesia") (TSX-V:ODS), an SAP® BusinessObjects™ authorized education partner since 2008, today announced it has extended its public education courses offering. Odesia will launch a new series of bilingual courses on SAP BusinessObjects solutions in September 2009.

"In 2008, Odesia successfully trained hundreds of students on SAP BusinessObjects solutions," said Denise Gonçalves, vice president, Business Development, Odesia. "SAP recognized our expertise and know-how, which enabled us to launch this new series of public courses for the business community in Montreal."

The audiences for the training program are users of SAP BusinessObjects solutions of all levels, from beginner to advanced. The training is given in public classes or directly at a customer's site by certified instructors. Course length varies between one to four days and each course uses the official training curriculum created by SAP.

"We are pleased that Odesia is now offering public courses in the Province of Quebec," said Beth Christopher, manager of Partner Education Programs, SAP Canada. "Our authorized education partners are an integral part of our sales and delivery team, offering customers a high-quality training experience."

The first training session will begin in Montreal the week of September 21 with the following courses: Crystal Reports® 2008 Report Design I, II and III.

In the subsequent months, sessions will be given on Xcelsius® 2008 software, SAP BusinessObjects Universe Design and Advanced Universe Design, SAP BusinessObjects Web Intelligence® and Advanced SAP BusinessObjects Web Intelligence, BusinessObjects Enterprise Administration and Security and Administering Servers.
